ARCHITECT MULLETT'S FUNERAL.

Impressive Ceremonies Held Over His Remains Yesterday.
The funeral services over the remains of Mr. Alfred B. Mullett took place yesterday afternoon at his late residence, 2201 Pennsylvania avenue. Three services were performed, that of the Episcopal Church, that of Rev. Dr. Harding of St. Paul's, the services of the Knights Templar, the ritual being read by Emile Commander Brummett and Prelate McFarlan of Washington Commandery, No. 1. The third service was performed by Hirsh Lodge, No. 10, with Masonic ceremonies. Worthy Master James D. Nevin presided.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the remains were escorted to the Baltimore and Ohio depot. The members of the family and the representatives of the Masonic orders accompanying the remains left on the 3:15 train for Cincinnati, where the burial will take place.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, in relating the episode of ex-Supervising Architect Mullett, which occurred at Washington on Monday night, says:

Singularly enough, Architect Mullett's brother, Thomas Mullett, a formerly well-known naval officer, also succumbed in a tragic way. Officer Mullett, while in the service of the Naval Department, spent a great part of his time in and about Cincinnati, where he was an melancholy invalid and grew unusually despondent. The Government, for awhile, relieved him from service, and he went to California. While in San Francisco he sent word to his mother in the East to send him his gun and hunting outfit, as he desired to spend some time in the California forests to see if such exercise would not enable him to gradually drive away his habitual despondency.

His mother packed up all his things, including a pistol, and forwarded them to his address in San Francisco. Soon after receiving them he shot himself in front of the way place in San Francisco. The unknown corpse was taken to the morgue, and was upon the table of the coroner's office in the field, when a young lady friend of his, through mere curiosity, was attracted to the morgue, and, to her horror, discovered that the suicide was that of her despondent friend. The body was subsequently shipped to this city and interred in Spring Grove Cemetery. He was a bachelor.

The two brothers who terminated their own existences were seemingly bright and happy, but their deaths reveal something deeper—their careers, though well directed, seemed to have been darkened by despondency.

Beginning Work on the Zoo.

Work is progressing on the new Zoological Park, and about thirty men are engaged in laying out the park and building roadways and drives and doing other preliminary work. Mr. Frederick Law Olmstead, the landscape artist, is expected here from Boston to a few days to supervise the work. The Olmsteads designed the Capitol grounds, Central Park in New York, Franklin Park, Boston, and the Buffalo (N. Y.) Park.

A Difficult Feat.

D. J. Canary, the well known tricker, Wednesday afternoon performed the feat of riding the full length of the steps on the southeast wing of the Capitol building on a Victor Safety bicycle. Among the wheelinmen who witnessed the feat were Mr. Morgan, president of the Victor Club, Mr. F. P. Libby of the Arlington Wheelmen, Mr. Merrill of the Wilmington Wheel Club, and others.

Pioneer Council, No. 26, will also be present, and at the conclusion of the ceremonies supper will be served and the evening passed in social enjoyment.

Hate Kept Offenders in the House.

There were very few persons arrested in any of the precincts last night. At the New Jersey avenue station Judge Miller had less than a dozen cases to dispose of, while at the Twelfth street court there were less than half a dozen. All the business at both courts was disposed of by 10:15 o'clock.

Fixed the Maximum Penalty.

In the Police Court this morning Vincent Lemire was tried on a charge of selling liquor without a license at his place of business on the corner of Third and D streets southwest. Several distinct sales were proven and Judge Miller assessed the usual fine for this offense, $100.

Recovering from Their Injuries.

W. B. Cox and P. P. Woodward, the two men who were so seriously injured in the runaway accident near the Garfield statue, are still confined to their beds at the Provincetown Hospital. Mr. Woodward, considering the manner in which he was broken up, is doing very well but Mr. Cox is not yet out of danger.

A Mandate has been issued by District Assembly, No. 69, Knights of Labor, to the labor organizations of Lancaster county urging all members to advocate the labor bills now pending before Congress, and to oppose the re-election of Congressmen who are known to be antagonistic to these bills.

WIFE BEATERS PUNISHED.

TWO MEN WHO BRUTALLY MALTREATED THEIR BETTER HALVES.

At the New Jersey avenue station this morning, William Hill was charged with having assaulted his wife, Harriet Hill. He beat her badly and threatened to put her out of her home. He was unable to give any reasonable explanation for having resorted to such brutal treatment and Judge Miller said he could pay a fine of $20 or go to jail for sixty days.

John Warner, a colored man, told the Judge that he was an heir doctor and practitioner, the tenth of the Camp, was also charged with beating his wife, Lizzie, and biting one of her fingers nearly off. He was required to put up $25 or go to jail for two months.

Pythian Visitation.

At the castle hall of Excelsior Lodge, No. 14, Knights of Pythias, on Tuesday night, there was a Grand Lodge visitation, the officers of which went through a rigid school of instruction of the unwritten work of the order by the grand master, W. H. Johnson, and L. F. Powell. The lecture room was handsomely decorated with the national flag and the Pythian colors. Richard Goodhart, the supreme representative of the parent jurisdiction, made remarks, as also did Past Chancellor Joseph Connors. The Pastime Musical Club gave several selections. Mr. Pulitzer recited "O'leary" and songs were sung by Frank Depack and Robert Vanneman. The Pythian Glee Club also sang several songs. Refreshments were served.

Discovering Burglar's Tools.

Some of the tools which were used by the professional cracksmen who went through Hoffa's jewelry establishment are now on exhibition in our Halls. The tools were a combination hook and Jimmy, which was used in cutting the back out of the safe after the holes had been drilled a certain distance apart. These tools were turned over to the custody of the police department.

Driven Out by the Rain.

On account of the storm yesterday work had to be suspended on the third story addition to the New Jersey Avenue police station, and the building is virtually without a roof. In the meantime the officers are provided with temporary quarters in the small building in the rear of the station. The plaster in the building has been slightly damaged by the heavy fall of rain.

A Modest Sensitive Woman often shrinks from consulting a physician about functional derangement, and prefers to consult a clairvoyant, who may be less prevalent. To all such women we would say that one of the most skilful physicians of the day, who has had a vast experience in the treatment of nervous diseases, has prepared a remedy, which is of infinite value to them. We refer to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is the only remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and infirmities. It gives a positive guarantee from the manufacturer, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. See guarantee printed on endpaper.
